INFLAMMATION OF STOMACH

Causes Death of Mrs. Maloney
Near Bainbridge.

Mrs. Viney Maloney, wife of William Maloney, L. C. the contractor from Eddyville, died last Thursday night near Bainbridge, after an illness of several weeks, of inflammation of the stomach and bowels.

Mr. Maloney had been engaged for some weeks with a large force of hands getting out cross-ties for the railroad company and had temporarily moved his family to the Bainbridge neighborhood.

His wife soon became ill and gradually grew worse until relieved by death.

The remains were shipped to Kutatawa Saturday and interred near that place.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Commonwealth Docket Pretty Well Finished Up.

A number of Commonwealth cases have been continued until the spring term and the docket is pretty well up. Only minor cases have been claiming the attention of court during the past few days and the session will likely close tomorrow.

The case of John Wilson, charged with murder, will come up to day
on a motion for bail.

William Nance, malicious shooting, dismissed.

Will Blair, convicted of housebreaking and given two years, has been granted a new trial.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price 50c.

COLD WAVES

With Snow Sleet and Rain Scheduled For November.

Hicks, in Word and Works, gives the following summary of the weather to be expected in the month of November:

A change to much warmer will set in westward about the 2d, following barometer will follow in the same section, cloudiness will rapidly ensue, and storms of rain, wind and probable thunder southward, will result during the 3d to the 6th. On the western and northern sides of these storms expect the rain to turn to heavy sleet and snow. Sleet will be a marked feature over vast sections—a fact to be noted by all who manage the wires and similar interests. Blizzards north and west. A general cold wave, frost and freezing will bring up the rear, of these storms, progressively from the northwest to eastward and southward.

On and touching the 10th, 11th and 12th the barometer will fall and general reaction to storm conditions will return. More storms of rain and snow will move eastward over the country from Thursday the 15th to Monday the 19th. Another decided dash of early winter will follow this period, being generally felt over the country and lasting up to about the 21st.

The last storm period for November is central on the 27th, extending from the 25th to the 30th. Marked storm conditions will begin westward about the 26th and energetic storms of rain, wind and snow will pass eastward over the country on the 27th to 30th. High temperature, rain, snow and storminess will not subside generally until after that date, although a high barometer and cold wave will be in sight in the northwest as the month goes out.

Yours Best Work

Cannot be done unless you have good health. You cannot have good health without pure blood. You may have pure blood by taking Hood's Sarapilla now. You cannot realize the good it will do you until you try it. Begin taking it to day and see how quickly it will give you an appetite, strength and vigor and cure your rheumatism, catarrh or scrofula.

THREE INDICTMENTS

Returned Against Dr. Henry F. Wharton, The Evangelist.

Freehold, N. J., Oct. 6.—The grand jury has returned three indictments against the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Wharton, the evangelist.

The first indictment charges the minister with securing money under false pretenses from Miss Clara Somers, of Ocean Grove.

The second indictment charges Dr. Wharton with embezzeling $5,000 from Miss Somers.

In the third indictment the evangelist is charged with embezzeling $8,000.

NORTH-EAST CHRISTIAN.

Rooms Gathered For The Kentuckyian by "Fruit Hill."

Fruit Hill, Ky., Oct. 24.—Miss Myrtle Hickey is the guest of Mrs. Vi Smith this week.

Sheriff Barnes was in this vicinity last week on very important business.

Mr. Huston Gamble and Miss Minnie Nixon eloped to Clarksville last Thursday night and were married.

Miss Flora Hord is visiting friends and relatives in Hopkins County.

Mrs. King and family are the pleasant guests of her father, W. W. West, at this writing.

Say! I would like to hear from "Honey Bee," once more. Surely you have not crawled in your hive so soon. Flowers are still in bloom.

Dr. G. W. Williams is on the sick list this week.

Don't forget the fox supper at Popular Grove Saturday night, Oct. 27. It will be conducted by the author at that place, Mr. Robinson.

The Democrats were greeted by a large and appreciation audience at this place Monday. The speaking was grand indeed was heard by the most anxious Democrats of the vicinity. The band boys looked grand and noble. I must say their visit was highly appreciated by the Fruit Hill people. Wishing them much success in their rounds this week I am, Respectfully,

FRUIT HILL.

HAS NATURE WARNED YOU?

Nature herself cries in the early gales of spring, "Look out, you people, the despondent chord to vibrate in this, the first of the year, is the chord of fever! Have you not felt it? Every feeling you have is an indication of sickness; avoid this, it is an indication of sickness.

Can you solve the problem? If so, you will win a prize. Do not send any money with your answer, but send name and correct address, and by return mail a beautiful prize will be sent you free. As our object in giving away these premiums is to attract attention to, and increase the circulation of our popular Magazine, we request you when you receive your prize to show it to as many of your friends as possible. We want large lists of readers in every neighborhood, and are going to offer many handsome prizes to secure them. Among the prizes we are offering is $250.00 in cash, and a week's course of these two great remedies, you will feel like the flowers look in the spring. Presently we will let you know when the atmosphere is full of germs. If you are not at home when we repeat this above, send us your name and address, and we will let you know when the atmosphere is full of germs. Sultan of Turkey Rarely Leaves
His Palace Grounds.Has the True Moslem Aversion for Europeans—In Constant Fear of Assassination—See Daily
Review.

Abdul Hamid, sultan of Turkey, through strong frame and full of muscular vigor, is cut off with an invalid condition, and is now in the possession of everyone and least known of all picturesquely and important personages. The pure Ottoman blood which came from his father, Abdul Medjib, is mingled with that of a less sturdy race, for his mother was an Armenian Arab. His great size, however, is an unmistakable air of lamour and melancholy which is his chief characteristic. This trait has a certain charm for the rare persons who are admitted to his presence. But besides the ambassadors of the different countries few persons have been admitted to his presence, and still fewer have entered the royal presence. No one, not even a humble tradesman who wishes to speak with one of the cooks of the royal kitchen, is permitted to enter the Yildiz grounds without showing a card and answering closely the half-dozen questions put to him by every man who demands admittance.

For Europeans, says the Chicago Record, the sultan has the true Moslem aversion. The fits of melancholy then tend to make him distrustful of all human kind which mean a revival of all the old superstitions. He is a man who well knows that he is judged most harshly. That he appreciates the abilities of Europeans in some respects, however, is shown by the fact that all his coachmen, gardeners, and upper servants are chosen from England, France and Italy, while the workmen are all from the Turkish army and navy and many public institutions count implicitly on the services of the hated foreigners. All these persons are kept at a distance, nevertheless, and the sultan's bodyguard is made up exclusively from his own countrymen.

Not long ago a famous European rifle rifle advertised some exhibitions in the Pera quarter of the Turkish capital, where most of the foreign residents live. After the first exhibition
The Sultan of Turkey

picious of Everybody.)

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Cannot Enjoy Life Because He is Suspicious of Everybody.)he was summoned before the grand vizier, who forbade further exhibitions already advertised. He obeyed the injunction and was about to leave the city when he was ordered to remain. He asked the amount of his yearly income from the practice of his profession.
When he stated it he was informed that this sum would be granted him yearly on condition that he remain and live in Constantinople. The grand vizier agreed, and for a while led a lazy, luxurious existence without inquiring to what he was indebted for his curious situation.
Finally he got tired, and remembering that he had a wife and child in Budapest,
he packed up his belongings and started on his journey. Two telegrams reached him before he arrived at the end of his trip, both from the grand vizier, imploring him to return, but he paid no attention to them, ignoring the former by a simple silence and the latter by a hasty reply. After he had seen his wife, however, he was persuaded to return to Yildiz with his entire family, and was then told why so much fuss had been made over him. The officials responsible for the safety of the sultan stated that if the riflemen were not attracted by the "Young Turkey" party to employ him to assassinate their master, and to do the royal head what he had done with such nonchalance to the glass balls during his exhibition.
They preferred to give him permanent quarters in the beautiful Bosporus palace.Except for a weekly journey to the mosque, Abdul Hamid never leaves the grounds of his palace, where a rigorous exacting routine is followed. Black coffee is taken in the morning, and tubs and montagnes of his park,
a ride in his automobile or electric launch
and an inspection of his wonderful hot-houses make up the morning. The sultan is a good, practical workman, and often spends part of the afternoon with his hammar, and in his workshop, and in the study of foreign affairs he has given an elaborately carved writing desk made by his own hand. He is also passionately fond of horses, and finds an hour to spare each day in which to visit his stables and instruct his men.
A few audiences must also be given,
and a few social visits, but he is content to remain in his palace until the last thing. When they are once over the day is finished. Now and then a concert or play is arranged for him, but he takes only languid interest in the sort of thing. His life seems to consist of interest or charm, and few if any immediate retainers will be surprised if he comes finally to a tragic his deputies, and the booth will be located in the clerk's office.

The registration is by affidavit only,
and only those persons who were absent from the city or ill
during the regular days can lawfully register. It will be the last opportunity to register before election day, and those Democrats who expect to vote next month are urged to register.There was quite a rush all day yesterday and many new names were placed on the books. The Democratic committee had challengers
on hand to challenge questionable voters. At 4 o'clock 49
Democrats, 38 Republicans and 12
Independents had registered.

OPEN REBELLION.

Colored Voters Refuse to Support Republican Party

Two Colored Democratic Clubs Organized With Good Membership at Fairview.

There is said to be an open rebellion among the negroes of the Fairview country and they will refuse to support the Republican party in November. The Fairview Review says:

"Last Tuesday night Hon. Frank Gill, of Elkhorn, had an appointment to make a Republican speech at the colored people's school house in the neighborhood some two miles southeast of this place. After he had finished he was answered by Grant Williams, (col) of this place, who said that the leading Republicans had used the colored people as their political tools long enough and that the time had now come for them to shake off the yoke of the bosses, and that they were going to do it, and that the white Republicans had been getting the boodle and putting it down in their pockets, knowing the negro would go to the polls and vote all right anyhow, and if they were given anything it was a little mean whisky, and that they were tired of that kind of business, and if there was any pie to be given that the white Republicans got it all, and that the poor negro did not even get a crumb. He was followed by Morgan Christian, another colored man, who spoke along the same line. Gill all the time protesting and telling them that they were acting very foolish.

The colored people then proceeded to organize a free silver club of 17 members, electing Rep Jones, col., president.

Gill took all of their names and left very much crest fallen. There is also a negro free silver club here which has 22 members. G. G. Williams, col., is president.

The Republican leaders in this section are very much exercised over the turn things have taken among the negroes and are busy devising means to get them back in line. This defection among the negroes seems from all we can learn to be general."

GREAT CROWD

Attended Trigg County Stock Show Held at Cadiz.

The Trigg county stock show held at Cadiz last Thursday was largely attended and proved a big success in all respects. The crowd was variously estimated at from three to five thousand, Christian county furnishing a large number.

A number of costly premiums were offered on nearly every product of that county and the awards were satisfactory to all. The baby show was held in the circuit court room and around court square the space was taken up with stock pens. It is not among the improbabilities that the stock show will hereafter be an annual feature in Trigg.

McMurry-Levy.

News has come to Hopkinsville of the announced engagement. Miss Mai Levy to Elmo McMurry, both of Guthrie. Miss Levy is the young daughter of Judge S. Levy, and Mr. McMurry is a member of the firm of McMurry & Bryan. The marriage will take place in November.

4,000 PEOPLE

Addressed by The Bandwagon Campaigners.

Canvass Wound Up With a Big Rally at the Court House Friday Night.

The first three days of the Democratic whirlwind campaign were reported from Crofton Thursday night. The two big meetings at Empire and Crofton Wednesday night had been distinct successes, in spite of some attempts of Crofton Republicans to reduce the attendance at that place. Mr. Howell spoke to the Empire miners and then reached Crofton at 8:30 and followed Mr. Duffy, who had been speaking to the Crofton meeting, which was presided over by Mr. W. A. Wilgus.

Thursday morning the campaigners set out bright and early for Pool's Mill, where a stop was made on the way to Lantrip's. Here a crowd of 100 was found and speeches were made by Duffy and Howell. At this point Mr. Dennis E. Perry joined the corps of speakers and Mr. Meacham, who had returned to town and missed the Crofton meeting, again overtook the crowd. Dinner was eaten at 11:30. Mr. J. D. Terry, a former Republican, entertained the speakers and Mrs. Dr. Pool sent a large pot of coffee to the camp for the picnickers. The party had in the meantime increased by the arrival of Mr. E. D. Jones and Mr. R. H. Coffey.

Before resuming the journey after dinner, the band played a tune in front of Dr. Pool's house, in return for courtesies Mrs. Pool had shown in her husband's absence, and the vehicles were soon headed for Lantrip's, over a good road. The appointment there was for 1 o'clock and the speaking began only a few minutes later. Miss Katie McDaniel, County Superintendent, was here inspecting the school taught by Prof. Paul Keith, a staunch young Democrat. The crowd of 100 or more was too large for the school house and the meeting was held under the shade trees. The band as usual played several pieces, and also played before the speeches, which were made by Meacham, Perry, Duffy, Dulin and Howell. All were brief and to the point. This was the voting place of a strong Republican precinct that gives 103 majority. The Democratic vote in Pool's big stable near Consolation and the schoolhouse was reached at 1:30. School had been turned out for the speaking and about 20 men were present. This point was only a mile from Renshaw's Store and after some music the whole crowd proceeded to the store, where there were about 100 people, mostly Republicans, in waiting. Mr. Rogers, the merchant, gave permission for the meeting to be held in front of his store and a big box was placed in the middle of the road for a platform. It was learned here that two Republican speakers had spoken at Consolation the night before and made statements that the few Democrats in that district wanted answered. Mr. Meacham spoke for 40 minutes on Republican frauds in the county. Mr. Dulin briefly gave his reasons for renouncing McKinley for whom he voted in 1896, and Mr. Howell was left behind to make a set speech, which he did with more than his usual earnestness and force. The Republicans squirmed like eels under his barbs of facts and withering sarcasm, and when he left the Republican leaders were very much wrought up. They heard them to a finish, though, as the "hot stuff" he gave their party glued them to the spot. Some of the Republican leaders recently indicted have relatives in East's School House district, in which this store is located, and they were not in a pleasant frame of mind toward the commonwealths attorney.

From Lantrip's to Macedonia, where the night meeting was held, was only five miles and the drive was a pleasant one over a good road. Ashby Edmunds and Phil Gaither joined the party here with Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an undiagnosed condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is a sure sign of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It cures inability to hold water, scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mildest and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon evident. It stands the highest for its wonderful properties. It cures the most distressing cases. If you need a physician you can't afford to be without it. Sold by druggists in 50c, and $1.00.

a tent and cooking outfit, with Frank Southall as cook. A camp was pitched at Macedonia church. Several of the band boys slept in the tent from choice.

The party now numbered nearly 30 men and 14 horses, but the good people of Lantrip's were equal to the demands upon their hospitality and Democrats and Republicans alike met the campaigners a mile from Macedonia and offered them more homes than could be accepted, though all hands ate supper in the camp, hot coffee, eggs and sausage being a part of the menu. The three colored drivers, who were all by this time full of enthusiasm, could with difficulty be persuaded to stay in camp while the big rally was held at night less than a mile away. The meeting was held in Mr. J. N. Murphy's yard and it was a shaggy. Some estimates of the crowd were as high as 1,000, but a close calculation showed that there were not fewer than 500 people present, in this sparsely settled Republican stronghold. Mr. Wilgus presided and speeches were made by Meacham on county issues, Perry on State issues, Duffy on imperialism and Howell on trusts and assassination. The meeting lasted from 7 to 9:30, the music as usual providing an important part.

Friday morning was ushered in with a drizzling rain and it began to look blue for a pleasant finish. The Hawkins date was for 9 o'clock, but this point was reached ahead of time and as it was still raining the meeting was held in a big tobacco barn belonging to Mr. Blades. All of the preparations had been made by Messrs. Brown, Woosley and other Democrats of the vicinity. The band filled in most of the time until 10 o'clock and the meeting opened with 150 present, a number of ladies. Esq. J. M. P'Pool, one of the oldest men in the county, now 82 years old, drove several miles to attend and a venerable old lady, apparently almost as old, was seen in the crowd.

The four regular speakers occupied the stand in turn and at 11 o'clock the Bandwagons left, dropping Mr. Howell to finish an hour's speech.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Makes hot breakfast-breads wholesome—no yeast germs, no alum. Makes cake, biscuit and pastry of superior fineness, flavor and delicacy. Makes food that will keep moist and sweet. Is most economical, because it is the purest and greatest in leavening strength. In the easy, expeditious preparation of the finer cakes and pastries, Royal is indispensable.

Care must be taken to avoid baking powders made from alum. Such powders are not clean because they cost but a few cents a pound. None other will spoil the cake, but alum is a corrosive acid, which taken in food means injury to health.

MASS MEETING

At Court House Thursday night for Free Turnpikes.

Thursday night the town will turn out en masse to whoop up the free turnpike movement. Encouraging reports are coming in from all sides, and everything indicates the success of the measure next Thursday.

There will be meetings at a number of places in the country tonight, where the proposition will be explained to the people—which is all that is necessary to insure their support; as there is everything to be gained by good roads and nothing to lose.

The increased competition that free roads will bring about will bring many dollars to the farmer. There will be a dozen buyers for a crop where there is one now.

The opportunities for trade will be increased and a thousand advantages will inure to the entire country.

Every good citizen should see to it that it carries.

A grand rally will be held at the Tabernacle next Monday night with music, speeches, and a general round-up.

REAR ADMIRAL CASEY.

Selected by Navy Department to Command of the Pacific Ocean Station.

Rear Admiral Silas Casey, at present commandant at League Island navy yard, will be pleased when he assumes command of the Pacific station on the retirement of Rear Admiral Albert Kautz, in the near future. The new admiral is a man who will please Admiral Casey, particularly if there be any opportunity of fighting. His record shows this.

Rear Admiral Silas Casey was born on Rode Island on September 11, 1841, and entered the naval academy in 1856. Graduating from that institution in 1860, he was appointed a midshipman in that year and assigned to the Niagara. In 1861 he was promoted to the rank of master, taking part in the engagements with the batteries at Pensacola. In July, 1862, he was made lieutenant and was executive officer of the gunboat Wissahickon, taking part in the first attack on Charleston under Admiral Du Pont. At the attack on Fort Fisher he was executive officer of the gunboat Wissahickon, and was navigator on the Winooski, and was commissioned Lieutenant in 1866. In the Korean expedition in 1872 he was executive officer of the Colorado, the flagship, and commanded a battalion of sailors in the assault on Fort McKee.

In June, 1880, he was commissioned captain of the gunboat, after 15 years of duty in that grade, in which time he commanded the Wyoming, the Quinnebaug and the receiving ship Dale, he reached the rank of captain in February, 1889.

His experience with the vessels of the new navy was in connection with the fitting out of the Newark, and he was in command of that vessel from February, 1891, to May, 1895, when he received leave of absence and was detached. His next duty was captain of the receiving ship Vermont, at the Brooklyn navy yard, and there he remained until March, 1897, when he was assigned to the gunboat New York, of the North Atlantic squadron. On this duty he remained until made commandant of the League Island navy yard.

HAS MONEY TO BURN.

Our New Ambassador to Italy, Mr. Meyer, Is a Man of Wealth and Many Accomplishments.

George von L. Meyer, who will succeed Ambassador Draper at the head of the American embassy in Rome, is one of the wealthiest men in Massachusetts. He lives in a magnificent home near Cambridge, and has a fine estate of 150 acres, adjoining the estate of his mother, who is herself blessed with an extraordinary quantity of the world's wealth. Mr. Meyer was born in Massachusetts in 1858 and is a graduate of Harvard with the class of 1879. His debut in business was made several years ago in Boston, where he served as member of the common council and for one term as alderman. He next served with distinction in the legislature, acting as speaker of the house for three of the five years he served at the capital. Gov. Wolcott appointed him chairman of the Massachusetts board of managers for the Paris exposition and he was last year elected Massachusetts' member of the national committee. The new ambassador's wealth will enable him easily to sustain the large expenses of his position.

First:—Because the proprietors have always been most careful in selecting the various ingredients used in its composition, namely the finest Cod Liver Oil, and the purest Hypophosphites.

Second:—Because they have skillfully combined the various ingredients that the best possible results are obtained by its use.

Third:—Because it has made so many sickly, delicate children strong and healthy, given health and rosy cheeks to so many pale anaemic girls, and healed the lungs and restored to full health, so many thousands in the first stages of Consumption.

Two Good Clerks.

An Atchison merchant has two clerks who work very hard, and are very useful. He gives them to understand that he intends to keep only one, and that the one who is least useful must go at some time in the near future.—Atchison Globe.
